

The Conning Tower

To a Young Woman Reader in the Subway Saturday Morning Who Seemed To Be Having a Good Time.

Dear golden tressed girl, if that
You'll tell me what you giggled at,
Tell me what caused that soulful smile,
I'll print it every little while.

Food prices are up, and a manufacturer of dye-stuffs, who hasn't advanced the cost of his commodity more than 200% since August, 1914, says There Ought to Be a Law.

The Philadelphia Evening Ledger prints a picture of "Fireman Ambrose M. Sherman, who has sacrificed his life many times to help others."

NO. BUT WE'D HAVE SLAPPED MARY PICKFORD HERSELF.

Sir: Do you know that the lady you slapped on the back during the fourth set of the McLoughlin-Church match at Forest Hills Friday was the daughter-in-law of Boss Lord and that she sat in mortal terror for fear that you would carry out your threat and repeat?

B. F. CORNELIUS, JR.

The anguish suffered by this department when McLoughlin loses is about all it can endure in one month. Wherefore we shall stay away from Merion, lest Mr. Robert Gardner, our ideal of a golf amateur, lose the championship.

THE LAND OF SONG.

Love leads the way when minstrels tread
The orchard aisles where dreams instead
Of fruit hang on the dewy boughs,
Illumed with hopes whose hues arouse
New lays with sweet notes to be wed.

And as they sing what visions spread
To woo their eyes by fancy fed?
Be Time forgot; with Care adrowse,
Love leads the way.

Along thy paths both pain and dread,
O Land of Song, have often sped,
Yet naught the poet's spirit cowers;
With lute and lyre he chants his vows,
And so he must—till he be dead—
Love leads the way.

SAMUEL MINTURN PECK.

Still, a U. S. mail auto-truck driver, at home, may be a docile person, ruled wholly by his wife.

A readable essay would be one on "The U. S. Mail Auto-Truck Driver, and How He Cares for His Young."

DOUCE FAR NIENTE.

(Mexican Border Model.)

A daisied stitched in a sylvan glade;
I paused, and asked in the cool green shade:
"Oh, what are you making, my pretty maid?"
She blushed and smiled, as she hung her head.
"I'm sewing for soldiers, sir," she said.
"How noble!" said I to the maiden fair,
"And the snow-white bags you are fashioning there."
"Are they lucky amulets ready to wear?"
"In Europe's sorrow and dark despair,
Or something practical, eager to go
"Defending the border of Mexico?"
"Will you lead those sacks to the very brim
"With attar-of-roses—just for him."
"Scenting his slumbers to ease the smart
"Of the slow, hot beat of his love-sick heart,
"Trusting the fragrance of perfume may
"Recall the dreams of a summer's day?"
But the maiden blushed, as she hung her head;
"I fill them with hop-todger, sir!" she said.

SINBAD

FAMILIAR MISQUOTATIONS.

"Alas, poor Yorick! I knew him well, Horatio."

"Whom do you think can do that?"—From "You Never Know Your Luck," by Gilbert Parker.
Cyril, perhaps.

Speaking of the Swimming Poets, there was Algernon Charles Burnside, in "Tristram of Lyonesse":

And mightier grew the joy to meet full-faced
Each wave, and mount with upward plunge, and taste
The rapture of its rolling strength, and cross
Its flickering crown of snows that flash and toss
Like plumes in battle's blithest charge, and thence
To match the next with yet more strenuous sense;
Till on his eyes the light beat hard and bade
His face turn west and shoreward through the glad
Swift return of the waters golden-clad,
And back with light reluctant heart he bore
Across the broad-backed rollers in to shore.

There is small likelihood of a strike now, the standing-out champions appearing to have won.

A SONG TO CITRONELLE.

Poets sing their Amaryllis
Gentle, chaste or wanton wild.
Sing I one more sweet than lilies,
Citronelle, soft slumber's child.
Ah, Citronelle,
When thou'rt near me all is well!

Odeorous enemy of stingers,
Pests of sultry summer nights,
Not one hungry buzzer lingers
Where thy pungent perfume bites.
Ah, Citronelle,
When thou'rt near me all is well!

Let them prate of Amaryllis
And the nymphs they sang of old—
Laud their Lalage or Phyllis—
Well enough in winter's cold—
But in summer, Citronelle—
With thee near me all is well!

J. S. WOOD.

"An officer and ninety Germans," says a Tribune cable, "surrounded near Guillemont to-day." Are German officers people?

Gotham Gleanings

E. H. Hooker of here had a busy week of it, what with one thing & another.

Geo. Plank the w. k. artist is visiting in the city.

It rained a little yesterday.

Grant Rice is at Merion, Pa., watching the golfers play, he being a good one himself. We put in last wk. watching the tennis championship games, too.

Sig. Spaeth has had his hat cleaned and a new hair cut.

Looks like there would be no N. Y. team winning a pennant and we would win a bet from Old Geo. Daley. Hey Geo.

The eight hour day for organ grinders, parrots, and old-clothes shouters would be a step for cosmic amelioration.

The President's job is similar to a lawn tennis umpire's.

If he does it perfectly, the players get all the credit and applause.

If he makes one debatable decision, Heaven help him!

F. P. A.

Society and Its Summer Home Activities

Myopia Horse Show Is Scheduled for Labor Day—Many Holiday Week-End Parties.

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 2.—All roads will lead to Myopia on Labor Day on the occasion of the twenty-second annual open air horse show and gymkhana of the Myopia Hunt Club. With fair weather it is expected that there will be a record breaking crowd out for the event. James W. Appleton, master of the club, is chairman of the committee in charge, and besides the usual horse show events there will be a long card of gymkhana attractions. The Myopia polo season opens on Monday, and there will be a band concert in connection with the affair.

Henry Clay Frick, of Eagle Rock, has returned from a few days' visit to friends in New York City. Miss Eleanor Sears, of the Farms colony, has been in New York this week for the national tennis championships. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. P. Wichfield, of Swift-Moor, Prides Crossing, have returned from a New York and Newport stay.

Dr. J. Henry Lancashire, of the Manchester colony, gave his annual golf tourney and dinner at the Essex County Club on Tuesday. Sixty friends who play with Dr. Lancashire were his guests. The cup was won by G. F. Willett, and at the dinner party at Graftonwood, the Lancashire home, former Senator A. J. Beveridge, who is summering at Beverly Farms, was the principal speaker.

The wedding of Miss Marie Dallas Agassiz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Agassiz, of the Hamilton colony, to Cornelius Conway Felton, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Felton, of Haverford, Penn., will take place at the Agassiz summer home on Tuesday, September 19. Wilton B. Felton, of Philadelphia, will be the best man for his brother, while Miss Anna Agassiz will be the maid of honor. Wardsworth Bush, F. S. Allen and D. P. Morgan, Jr., of New York, will be ushers.

The Rev. William L. Wood has returned to Lenox after a stay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Wood, of New York, at their summer home at Ipswich.

The wedding of Miss Anne Middleton Means, of the Farms colony, and Valentine Worthington, of New York, will take place at the Farms on October 14. Miss Jessie Means will be the maid of honor, and Harold Worthington, of New York, will be the best man for his brother.

Mrs. Harrison Tweed, of New York, was among the patronesses for the bridge tournament given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert S. Bradley, at Prides Crossing, for the benefit of the Children's Island Sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Marsh Young, of New York, are at the Beverly Inn for a month. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Small Moore, of Lake Forest, Ill., are visiting Mr. Moore's parents, Judge and Mrs. William H. Moore, of New York, at Rockmarge, Prides Crossing. Mr. and Mrs. Q. A. Shaw, 2d, of the Farms colony, have returned from their Greenwood, Va., place.

Mrs. H. H. Whitman has returned to her summer home at Wenham for the late season after a visit with her mother, Mrs. H. C. Taylor, in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sawyer, of the Cove colony, have returned from New York. Mrs. G. H. Swift, of the Burgess Point colony, has been entertaining her mother, Mrs. J. H. Hildebrand, of Chicago.

New London.

New London, Conn., Sept. 2.—With the possibility that all the hotels will remain open till October, social life here continues with its usual zest.

One night this past week Miss Francena Tracy, of New York, gave a supper in the Griswold grill after one of the dances. Miss Tracy's guests were Miss Vera Tompkins, Miss Eleanor Stanard, Miss Charlotte Louise Lysle, Miss Aline Paige, Miss Marjorie Love, Miss Theodora Nugent, Miss Louise Murray, Miss Florence Bradley, Miss Leida Wiegand, Morgan Morgan, Jack Morgan, Julius Fleischmann, Jr., Harold Lake, James Lysle, Emory Tracy, William Mitchell, Harold Bradley and John Alden Philbrick, Jr.

On Saturday night Mrs. Lewis Dodd, of Cincinnati, gave a large dinner party at the Griswold. Mrs. Dodd's guests included Mr. and Mrs. R. S. McVeigh, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Fleischmann, of Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Nugent, of St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. John Barclay Stephenson Rex and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jackson, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Graham, of Washington; Miss Florence Bliss, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Charles Karl, of Boston.

One of the prettiest card parties of the week was given by Mrs. James Lancaster Morgan, of Brooklyn. Among Mrs. Morgan's guests were Mrs. Walter W. Spadone, of Brooklyn; Mrs. J. G. Carruth, of Philadelphia; Mrs. John Dumont, of Plainfield; Mrs. Byron Nugent, of St. Louis; Mrs. George Munro, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Julius Fleischmann, of Cincinnati and New York; Mrs. Miller Outcault and Miss Blanche Bradford, of Cincinnati. Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster Morgan, of New York, have joined Mr. and Mrs. James Lancaster Morgan at the Griswold.

On Wednesday Mrs. William Schall, Jr., entertained at luncheon at the Schall's picturesque residence on Pequot Avenue in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Franklin Brewster. The guests were Mrs. Stuart Waller, Mrs. Austin P. Sackett, Mrs. Edward Wright, Jr., Mrs. Nelson Whitney, Mrs. L. Tracy Sheffield, Mrs. Donald Chappell, Mrs. Ellyer Allyn, Miss Isabelle Moore and Miss Marie Poudensan.

Edmund C. Johnston entertained at another of his delightful dinner parties at the Casino Saturday evening. Mr. Johnston's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Greenough, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Woodbury, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ogden, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ellyer Allyn, Mr. and Mrs. W. Kyle Sheffield, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hyams, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Whitney, the Misses Palmer, Miss Mary Ogden, Miss Emily Norris, Miss Edna Leighton Tyler, Miss Therese Kohn, Adam Norris, Walter Lilly, John Dornin, Robert Palmer and C. H. Hyams, 3d.

Mrs. Frank B. Porter entertained eight guests at dinner and bridge at her home on Ocean and Glenwood Avenues Tuesday evening.

On Monday Richard Mansfield entertained at luncheon at Apple Blossom cottage for Arvid Paulson, the young Swedish-American actor, who is to participate in "Old Heidelberg," the play which Mrs. Mansfield (Beatrice Cameron) is to produce at the Lyceum Theatre, New London, next Saturday, and in which Mr. Mansfield is to take the leading role.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bliss entertained ten guests at dinner for their daughter, Miss Dolly Bliss, at their home Monday evening, the guests including Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore, Miss Isabelle Moore, Mrs. C. P. Greenough, Miles Platt, Ernest Bruguiere and Edmund C. Johnston.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Gregory C. Davidson entertained at bridge for the benefit of the Darrach Home for Crippled Children of New York, of which she is a director. Twenty tables were in play, with a prize for each table, the prizes having been offered by Mrs. Frederick Haight, Mrs. Vernon C. Brown and Miss Margaret Remsen. After cards tea was served. Mrs. Davidson was assisted by Mrs. C. Royce Boss and Mrs. Morris.

Two luncheons were given Thursday, one by Mrs. W. B. Quintance and the other by the Misses Palmer. Mrs. Quintance's guests were Mrs. Julius Morgan, Miss Caroline Morgan, Mrs. Hamilton Perkins, Mrs. C. W. Bliss, Mrs. C. P. Greenough, Mrs. C. H. Hyams, Mrs. Henry R. Bond, Mrs. C. W. Ogden, Jr., Miss Mary Ogden, Mrs. Tracy Sheffield and George Palmer. The Misses Palmer's guests were Mrs. Robert Moore, Mrs. Lawrence Y. Spear and Mrs. John McGoun.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Y. Spear have just taken possession of their beautiful new home in New London.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon C. Brown and Mrs. Brown's sister, Miss Brundage, are cruising on the yacht Iris. A daughter was born last Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Stafford at the home of Mrs. Stafford's mother, Mrs. William Schall, Jr. Miss Margaret Schall's marriage to Mr. Stafford a year ago was one of the big society events of the season, as Miss Schall was as well known in New York society as she was in the summer life of New London.

Bar Harbor.

Bar Harbor, Me., Sept. 2.—The stage held the attention of the summer colony this week with a photoplay, "Harper's Formula," given at the Casino for the benefit of the Bar Harbor Hospital, and a burlesque melodrama, "Passion, Poison and Petrification," by George Bernard Shaw, presented by John Murray Anderson as the final of a series of entertainments arranged for the Summer Cabaret Club. Mrs. Gouverneur Morris is the authoress of "Harper's Formula," which was given with an amateur cast made up from cottage rejoiners. Mrs. Leonard Thomas was the heroine and Walter Phelps the hero in the play, which disclosed thrilling scenes of the pursuit of a special formula for making gunpowder. Auto and motor races furnish plenty of action, and there is a scene in the Bar Harbor Hospital, for which the benefit is given. The heroine finally obtains the formula, but in the mean time has fallen in love with the hero and refuses to use it. The social life of Bar Harbor is portrayed in a garden party at the home of Mrs. Edgar Scott, who takes the part of the mother of the hero. Other members in the cast include Miss Therese Fabbri, Leonard Thomas, Watson Emmett, Egisto Fabbri, Henry Taylor, Phoenix Ingraham, J. L. Ketterlinus, Robert Winthrop and Chief of Police Gerry.

The cast in "Passion, Poison and Petrification" was composed of both amateurs and professionals, and included Suzanne Morgan, of the "Twin Beds" company; Harold Sewall, Joseph Chipman, Miss Mary Pyle and Scott Pyle.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., opened Eyrie, Seal Harbor, yesterday at a tea for 500 guests, which included the workmen who have assisted in remodeling their home, which is now the largest on the island. Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison left this week for Europe.

At Narragansett.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., Sept. 2.—Many of the cottagers plan to remain through September this year for the out of door sports of early fall.

Several young women in the cottage colony have joined National Service School No. 4, of the Women's Section of the Navy League, which opens at Sunset Farm on September 6, to continue until September 20. Mrs. Irving H. Chase, of Waterbury, Conn., and a member of the cottage colony here, has permitted the use of the tract of land at Sunset Farm for the military camp, which will soon be established there.

MRS. EDWARD SPENCER'S TANDEM IN LENOX.

It is located near Point Judith Salt Pond and is an ideal site for the new camp, which will be conducted along military lines. The girls will live in tents, and a field kitchen will be established on the grounds. The main object of the school is to afford an opportunity for American women to acquire sufficient special training to be of national service in the event of war.

Mrs. George Barnett, wife of General Barnett, U. S. A., of Washington, D. C., will be the honorary commandant of the new school. Mrs. Irving H. Chase is chairman of the committee of arrangements, and other members are Mrs. Henry B. Kane, Miss Elsie Robinson, Mrs. Ernest Wilkinson and Miss Marguerite Prescott. Miss Lucia Chase, a daughter of Mrs. Irving H. Chase, is treasurer.

Among those who have enrolled for service in the military camp are Miss Bessie Samuel, Mrs. Philip Stevenson, Miss Kitty Penn-Smith, Miss Hannah Randolph, the Misses Eleanor and Lucia Chase, Miss Olivia Gazzam, Miss Christine Biddle, Mrs. Henry B. Joy and Miss Helen Joy, who will come here from Watch Hill, R. I.

Miss Constance Perkins, of New York, has been the guest recently of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fell, at their villa, Wildfield Lodge.

Southampton.

Southampton, Long Island, Sept. 2.—There is every indication that the season this year will be prolonged several weeks, as many of the cottagers who usually leave soon after Labor Day intend to remain until late autumn. Southampton is fast growing to be noted as a fall resort, and many of the families stay for the month of October.

Mrs. Charles E. Miller is the first of the cottagers to leave. She has gone to the Adirondacks, with her two sons, for the month of September, and during her absence her cottage will be occupied by Mrs. L. S. Stanton.

A large dinner party for 150 was given by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Davis at the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Davis have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. David Dows, Jr., at their cottage on Shinnecock Hills.

Several large luncheon and dinner parties will be given this week end at the different clubs, which are crowded with holiday guests.

The last of a series of Sunday evening musicals given by Samuel L. Parrish at his art museum was held this week. Among those who sang were Mrs. Alonzo Potter, Mrs. Lawrence Dilworth, Mrs. William B. Scaife and Edgar C. Lockland, all members of the cottage colony.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Farrington Smith and Bruno Huhn gave a recital at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. P. Pell. Among those present were Mrs. Henry H. Rogers, Mrs. George Barton French, Mrs. Alonzo Potter, Mrs. Lawrence Dilworth, Mrs. Charles Steele, Mrs. Cornelius N. Bliss, Jr., Mrs. J. R. Dilworth, Mrs. Goodhue Livingston, Mrs. Peter B. Wyckoff, Mrs. Henry W. Sage, Mrs. J. Frederick Kernochan, Mrs. F. Burrall Hoffman, Mrs. William Lowe Rice, Mrs. C. W. Hammill, Mrs. T. Morris Carnegie and Mrs. Robert M. Thompson.

On Monday Mrs. Peter B. Wyckoff entertained the members of the Southampton Garden Club at her residence. There was a competition for Miss French's Annual Fancy Dress Dance at Chesterwood an Event of the Week at Lenox.

Foundation, a home for orphaned children, and all of Cooperstown was present.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hyde Clark are giving a dance on Monday evening at Hyde Hall. This will be the largest dance of the season. A dance will be given at the O-te-saga on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Spaulding gave a musical at Mohican Lodge on Thursday, at which all of the summer colony were present.

At the Country Club on Monday morning there will be finals in the tennis tournament between Anthony McKim and George Field, and Miss Cecily McKim and Miss Mary Brown. There will also be a sailing race. In the lead in the ladies' sailing race is Miss Marjorie Smith, with Miss Dorothy Savage second. In the afternoon of Labor Day there will be dancing on the club piazza, a baseball game and water sports from the Country Club pier.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bowers are giving a dinner this evening before the O-te-saga dance.

Among those at the Fenimore Hotel this week from New York are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hutchins, Miss Katherine Hutchins and Mrs. A. P. Vance.

At the O-te-saga this week from New York are Mr. and Mrs. A. Jameson, Mrs. Asta Ash, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Patten and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ramsay.

In the Berkshires.

Lenox, Mass., Sept. 2.—Miss Margaret French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Chester French, gave her annual fancy dress dance at Chesterwood last night. The dance was in the studio of Mr. French, which was gayly decorated, and the gardens were illuminated with Oriental lanterns and presented a fairytale scene. The guests were from the Lenox, Stockbridge and Great Barrington summer colonies, and Mr. and Mrs. French entertained a house party for the occasion. Many of the costumes were particularly rich and beautiful, Hawaiian, Japanese and Chinese costumes being actual foreign productions.

Mrs. Walter Evans, wife of Judge Evans, of Louisville, Ky., was the winner of the clock golf trophy which Mrs. Alexander Martin, of New York, offered for the best score on the Maplewood course in Pittsfield. Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Charles C. Delmonico finished the first round in 26, and in the play-off Mrs. Evans won, the score being: Mrs. Evans, 26 Mrs. Delmonico, 30. Other players were Brigadier General John R. Brooke, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Humstone, Miss Mary C. Humstone, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Humphreys, Misses Martha, Alice and Mary Smith.

Mrs. Carl A. de Gersdorff was hostess at a gathering at the opening of the annual art exhibition in the Casino in Stockbridge to-day. Some of the artists who have sent paintings for the exhibition are Frederic Crowninshield, Walter Palmer, Emil Carlson, H. Bolton Jones, Walter Nettleton, Robert Nesbitt, F. Luis Mora and Robert Hamilton. The sculptors include Daniel Chester French, Charles Beach, Augustus Lukeman and Miss M. Hoffman. Society women showing works of art are Mrs. Bannyer Clarkson, Mrs. Richard C. Dixey, Miss Lydia Field Emmet, Miss Mary O. Kobbé, Miss Mary Foote and Mrs. William M. Bullitt.

A leading attraction of the week was the Stockbridge tennis tournament, which opened Tuesday. Miss Sophie Duer, daughter of Beverly C. Duer; Miss Nancy Osborne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Allan Osborne; Miss Josephine de Gersdorff, Mrs. George B. de Gersdorff, Misses M. Symphora and Grace Bristed, Miss Helen Rice, Miss Mary Church, Miss Marion Kerr, Miss Alice Nicoll, Mrs. Katharine Woodward Tyssowski, Mrs. Lawrence Goulay and Mrs. Edwin T. Rice, of the Stockbridge colony, took part in the tournament.

Countess Scherr-Thoss, of Berlin, who left Berlin August 10 and came to Lenox to visit her parents, ex-Ambassador and Mrs. Percy White, and her children, who have been in this country since last winter, will probably remain in America until the end of the war. The countess was called to Berlin in the spring, where her husband was lying wounded, and has been with him during his convalescence.

Miss Emily Tuckerman entertained Mme. Grouitch, of Serbia, at the Old Place this week, and opened her house Tuesday afternoon, when Mme. Grouitch spoke on the disaster to her country. The speaker was presented to the Stockbridge audience by Joseph H. Choate. A fund of $1,000 was collected for the aid of Mme. Grouitch's countrywomen. Miss Tuckerman has also been entertaining Miss Elinor Weld Betton, of Newport, and Miss Margaret Norton, of Cambridge.

Prominent people are arriving for the September season. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Z. Gray are at Quiney House, Mr. and Mrs. Reese Alsop are at the Chapin homestead in Tyringham, Mr. and Mrs. John MacLaren will arrive next week at Ashintully Farm in Tynningham; coming to the Lenox Club will be Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Fish Benjamin, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Delafield, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Meyers and Miss Mary Parsons. Mrs. Benjamin C. Porter, Mrs. J. Livingston Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Lee, Miss Margaret Lee, Chandler Robbins and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foster will be at Curtis Hotel.

The engagement of Miss Lucy Arriek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Arriek, of Chicago, to James R. Walker, son of Mrs. James M. Walker, of Stockbridge and Chicago, was announced this week. Mr. Walker has been prominent in the Stockbridge colony. The wedding will be a winter event in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Astor Bristed, Mr. and Mrs. David T. Dana and Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Brooks have arrived from the Massachusetts coast, where they have been for some time. Miss Julia Hunnewell is with Mr. and Mrs. George B. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shields Clarke returned to Fernbrook with their son John Charles Clarke, who has been a member of the art colony at Provincetown.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Lindsay Fairfax have gone to Merriek, Conn., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Fairfax before going to Virginia to live. Dr. and Mrs. William Adams Brown went to Boston after a visit to Thatcher M. Adams at Sundrum House.

Arrangements are being made for registering a scenario in Lenox, in which all of the younger set will appear. The film will be shown at the annual benefit entertainment for the Red Cross this month. Miss M. C. Villaseca, of Louisville, Ky., was the winner of the clock golf trophy which Mrs. Alexander Martin, of New York, offered for the best score on the Maplewood course in Pittsfield. Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Charles C. Delmonico finished the first round in 26, and in the play-off Mrs. Evans won, the score being: Mrs. Evans, 26 Mrs. Delmonico, 30. Other players were Brigadier General John R. Brooke, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Humstone, Miss Mary C. Humstone, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Humphreys, Misses Martha, Alice and Mary Smith.

At Saratoga.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Sept. 2.—The thousands of people at Saratoga Springs this summer represented all stages of society, and all professions, and with the departure of hundreds of them at the close of the last race on Saturday came others to take their place, for already the advance guard of Labor Day visitors is arriving. Consequently all of the large hotels are still filled. The United States Hotel is to remain open until October 1, and the Grand Union will not close until much later than last season. The hundreds of members of the Beta Theta Pi at their national convention in September and also the members of the Supreme Council of the Royal Arcanum this month will stay at the United States Hotel.

The announcement that the clubhouse of the Saratoga Association is to be enlarged before next season is good news for the hundreds of members, some of whom could not be accommodated this year on account of the great number of visitors at the races.

Sir George Gibbons, of London, and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carnsell, of Hamilton, were among the visitors to the track for the last of the races.

Between $15,000 and $16,000 was raised for the benefit of the British-French-Belgian Blinded Soldiers Relief Fund at the entertainment held here recently, which was patronized by more than 1,500 people and given under the auspices of the leaders of Saratoga's smart set.

General Nelson A. Miles, of the United States Army (retired), was among the week-end visitors to the United States Hotel. He came to watch the last racing of the season and to enjoy a week or so of golfing.

NEW YORK SOCIETY AT THE NEWPORT HORSE SHOW.
Miss Miriam Harriman, Pembroke Jones, Jr., Pembroke Jones, Mrs. Joseph Wright Harriman.
© Underwood & Underwood.